Have A Heart

Communications for Nonprofits with Michele Chausse and Toni Troop

Each year in February, we present a special program featuring leaders in nonprofits. They share not only their experience, unique to nonprofits, but also discuss career experiences helpful to anyone in the private sector.

This year, we welcome Michele Chausse, Director of Communications for Rosie's Place and Toni Troop, Director of Development and Public Relations for Jane Doe Inc. They will focus this year on both the advocacy and service aspects of nonprofits, and the impact of #MeToo on their clients and in their workplace.

The College Club of Boston closed both the members' rooms and their Bed & Breakfast on January 1. The installation of a new sprinkler system is going well, and a March re-opening is planned. But - but stay tuned! (Ever dealt with a contractor?)

We'll meet at the NonProfit Center of Boston, 89 South Street, just one block from South Station. Thanks to Sarah Leaf-Herrmann, Young Audiences and Rosie's Place for helping with the venue.
