

Boston Women Communicators

invites you to BWC's

★ Summer Networking Event ★

24th July 2018 - The Union Oyster House

With Eileen McNamara
Author of the best-selling

★ Eunice: The Kennedy who Changed the World ★

★ Don't miss our tradition of celebrating summer with an annual visit to The Union Oyster House on Boston's Freedom Trail. Members and our colleagues will gather for an evening of camaraderie, friendship and BWC's unique networking.

This year, we're delighted to welcome Eileen McNamara, one of our past Legacy Award winners. We first met Eileen in her role as a columnist with The Boston Globe, where she won the Pulitzer Prize for Commentary in 1997. She chairs the Journalism Program at Brandeis University. She is a graduate of Barnard.

★ On the 24th Eileen will join this us to discuss her career and her best-selling book: Eunice: The Kennedy Who Changed the World. Published by Simon and Schuster, the book examines the life and times of the Kennedy who left behind the family's most profound political legacy. Her other books include Breakdown: Sex, Suicide and the Harvard Psychiatrist and The Parting Glass: A Toast to the Traditional Pubs of Ireland.

Of course, we will have copies of Eunice for you to purchase, and have signed. A great candidate for the perfect summer gift as we sashay into political season....

This event will be a sellout.

Please make your reservations immediately.

We must give preference to BWC members.
